

Dr. Carol Parker Walsh is a best-selling author, international speaker, consultant, and executive presence coach. She's the founder of Evolve Image Consulting, a professional development company that educates entrepreneurs and business leaders on developing effective presentation & communication skills, an empowering executive presence, and a profitable, promotable & confident image. Through her expertise and transformative methods she has helped her clients go from ordinary to extraordinary in a very short period of time.

With over 25 years as an attorney, management consultant, executive, professor, and dean, Carol ran a 6-figure organizational consulting practice and won national awards for building a 100+ sales force, developing leaders, and business development. As a global thought leader, she has successfully partnered with individuals, teams, and organizations for improved performance and profitability.

Carol is a Premier Success Coach with the eWomen Network, the Vice President for Global Marketing for the Association of Image Consultants International, Editor-in-Chief of the AICI Global Magazine, is a regular contributor to the Vancouver Business Journal, The Oregonian, and KATU2's AM Northwest Morning Show, and have been seen in the Huffington Post, Thrive Global, and on ABC, CBS, NBC and FOX.