Tamarra Causley Robinson, CEO and Founder of Causley Robinson & Associates, LLC is a Certified Personal and Executive Leadership Development Coach, Consultant, Motivational Speaker, Mentor and former Blog Talk Radio Host. Her mission is to create a massive movement of professionals, especially women, who are inspired and empowered to re-discover their voice, to have the audacity to make courageous choices, and to boldly take charge of their lives and careers without apology, guilt, or shame.

Tamarra has 25+ years of corporate experience, 20 of which were with PwC (PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLC) as a Leader in the Information Technology Support organization. She has extensive Human Resource exposure and experience as a Diversity Leader, Executive Leadership Coach for emerging Global leaders, and Personal Development Leadership Coach for Senior Associate staff.

Tamarra gained her coaching credentials through the Institute of Professional Excellence in Coaching (iPEC) in 2009 and is a Certified Master Practitioner of the Energy Leadership Index. She has achieved her PCC (Professional Certified Coach) credentialing status through the International Coach Federation (ICF), demonstrating proficiency in coaching totaling 750 + coaching hours since being certified.

In her free time, Tamarra enjoys reading, going to the beach, connecting with friends and family, listening to music, and crocheting which helps to relax her during stressful times. Tamarra is an active member of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority, Incorporated; a Business and Professional Women's Sorority where she currently serves as Philadelphia's Mu chapter Financial Secretary and as Eastern Region Secretary. She's a long-time member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated; an internationally established organization focused on empowerment of women, scholarship, and fostering sisterhood everywhere in the world. Through both organizations, she enjoys providing the gift of time, mentorship, service, leadership and scholarship to underserved youth and their communities.
