

Sharon Monet Sifford-Wilson, MD, FACP

S. Monet Sifford-Wilson, MD has 30+ years of experience in clinical medicine, the pharmaceutical industry and philanthropic endeavors. After 13 years of full-time clinical medical practice, she has held Medical Affairs leadership roles with extensive global exposure, managing teams of US physicians, PharmD's and PhD's.

Monet's clinical experience includes partnership in Dover, DE, working as a solo practitioner at Shaw AFB Medical Clinic and Dover Family Physicians, serving as an outpatient physician for Delaware Correctional Health, and most recently as a part-time clinical provider for Living Great Medical Associates. She started her pharmaceutical career at Pfizer in 2001-2009 working in Pain & Arthritis for 2 years and then moved to the therapeutic area of diabetes. She rejoined Pfizer in 2019 as a member of the newly formed Hospital Business Unit.

Between her years at Pfizer, Monet worked for Novo Nordisk as Medical Director for the company's first GLP1-RA product, Victoza, and was then promoted to Senior Medical Director for the US insulin franchise. Before leaving, she served as Senior Director for the Modern Insulin franchise at Novo Nordisk, Inc where she was responsible for leading and managing the medical teams integral to the FDA approval and launch of four novel insulin products over a period of 6 years.

She earned her medical degree from the University of Maryland School of Medicine and completed her internship and residency in Internal Medicine at the Ohio State University Hospitals. In 2015, she completed a certification in Executive Philanthropy from Fairleigh Dickinson University and in 2016, she was elected to the Foundation Board of The College of New Jersey (TCNJ), a position she currently holds. She is most proud of her selection to the Novo Nordisk R&D Greenhouse program in 2016, a distinction held for the top 25 performing global employees in Research & Development and in being selected for several Pfizer William E. Upjohn awards.

She resides in Dover, DE with her husband of 32 years, Dr. Calvin T. Wilson, II and is the proud mother of two awesome children, Jessica Lauren, 30 and Calvin Thomas, III (Chipper) 28.
